Master's Message

There are a two dates you I would like you to be aware of and hopefully you can attend.

- Grand Lodge is November 12, 13 and 14. at the Orleans Resort on Tropicana
- The Veterans Barbeque, Friday Nov 10, from 10A to 3P. 5900 N Pecos. Nellis lodge has donated to make this event a pleasant one, the food is free. Visit our Vets and have a great time.

'Tis that time of the year again, when the leaves turn colors and the holidays are upon us. the last few months of the year are the those we would usually associate with good times, strengthening family ties and promoting goodwill towards our neighbors. It is also true that these months are fall and winter months, also the season that is the most cold and inhospitable. We should be reminded that during the holiday season that many less fortunate families do not have the resources to celebrate the way we may.

Many people suffer from lack of good clothing, food and shelter. Nellis Lodge members have has always been ready to donate freely. It is for this reason that Nellis Lodge 46 must support a drive this year for the worthy families of Las Vegas. We will join with other lodges and concordant bodies for the distribution of items which we will collect. Boxes will be placed near the entry to the temple, so that all can see. We will be collecting boxed and canned food, new clothing, new toys and new small appliances. Cash donations in the form of gift cards, and food cards are also to be accepted, when given or mailed to our lodge secretary. This drive is in effect immediately .

If you have any questions you may contact Mike Riitano, Sr. Warden, Jason Cunningham Jr Warden, Jim Greely Secretary or Travis Lindsey, Worshipful Master.

My time as your Master is coming to a close and it has been an honor serving you. Thank you for all of your support.
