The MMT Library

In the center of the Masonic Memorial Temple is our library. These days the room is primarily used for meetings and proficiencies, yet it has over 300 Masonic books, tracts and memorabilia that are available for viewing. For easy identification, many of the books have been cataloged in the library's database . For more information see the Lodge Secretary.

Master's Message

Pride

We have a lot to be proud of in Masonry. We are living a legacy which is steeped in Masonic history. As a matter of fact, a number of the things which evoke feelings of pride for the American everyman have been created or influenced by Masons. One occurrence at most gatherings is the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag of our country.

Although it is lately under attack by radical anarchists, the pledge of allegiance is an honored institution in our country. It is notable that our very own Brother Francis J. Bellamy a Baptist minister wrote this pledge in 1892. It was formally adopted by Congress in 1942 as the pledge and the official name of The Pledge of Allegiance was adopted in 1945. Throughout history, Masons have always been the kind of men that had the principles and the willingness to get out front of the crowd and do good things, the types of things that would protect and preserve a decent society. There are no shortage of notable figures of Masonic background in our history. We can all be proud to be in the company of brothers like this and contribute as they have.

Fraternally, Travis
